WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 2, 1818.

[No. 5321.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in casing desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.
To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back

Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c. &c.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water, A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature's weakness, or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops intermittent fevers.

may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this

SIR—I shall take no further notice at this time of your publications in the

Committed
TO my custody some time past as run-aways, a Negro woman and two children. The Negro woman calls herself Ann Butler, and says she is free, and came from Nottingham in Prince George county upwards of seven years ago to this county, where she has lived as a free person ever since.—She is 5 feet 2 inches high, of a very dark complexion, and appears to be about 28 years of age—had on when committed an oxburgh shift, an old white cotton petticoat, and a red calico frock.— Her oldest child is a boy, who is called Thomas—of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 5 years old.—The other is a girl, who is called Ann, also of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 3 years old. The owner is desired to come and take them away, otherwise they will be sold as the law directs, for their prison fees, &c.

of blood bay color, 15 hands high, long switch

The house and furniture are new and elegant,

French Creek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter—
The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

In submitting the above SPLendid SCHEME to the public, the confidence which its peculiar merit is so highly calculated to inspire, is not the only principle by which the Managers are guided. It is true, the unparalleled magnitude and number of the a character too captivating to be viewed with indifference. But the managers are moreover animated by a spirit commensurate with the importance of the great object to be accomplished, and no attention on their part will be neglected necessary to the success of an enterprise undertaken for the purpose of establishing an institution to include in its operations the cultivation and diffusion of all the Sciences.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Alexandria Academy, held on the 21st of August, 1818—
The following Address to the citizens of the town, was adopted by the Board, and ordered to be published:—

The trustees of the Alexandria Academy, impressed in common with their fellow-citizens with the great and lasting importance of education, especially to a people whose fundamental principles of government are those of equal liberty, justice and order, on the support of which rest all our republican institutions, and from which flow public as well as private happiness, have at different times made various efforts to place the Academy upon a more useful and respectable establishment, than it has heretofore been. They have with regret seen their well meant efforts fail, for want of that support which all who wish well to their beloved offspring ought to afford.

The trustees cannot continue their efforts to sustain the Academy, without other means than those they have heretofore possessed. They would therefore respectfully represent to their fellow-citizens of the town, the necessity there is of some effort on their part to enable the trustees to make such a change in the house and institution, as will render them generally useful.

The form of the house is inconvenient:
it is in such a state of decay as to be unfit for use, and is a discredit to the town. The institution requires certain necessary apparatus, and additional instructors. To effect these objects, funds are necessary, which cannot, as experience has clearly shown, be raised solely from the price of tuition.

It is confidently believed that the trustees in making this appeal to the parental feelings and liberality of the citizens of the town, will not appeal in vain, especially when they reflect, that by placing the Academy in their own town on a respectable footing, they will be relieved in a great measure from the necessity of sending their children to distant places for instruction, at a much greater expense than that at which they could be educated at home, and in too many instances at the very dear price of the loss of their moral principles.

The law incorporating the Academy declares that all persons, and their respective heirs, who shall contribute five pounds to the use of the Academy, shall have the right to vote at all elections of trustees.

Trusting that every citizen who values the blessing of education, the good of society, and the happiness and respectability of his children, will contribute liberally to wards so desirable an object; the trustees have appointed some of their own body to wait upon their fellow-citizens with a subscription paper for that purpose.

By order,
WILLIAM H. WILMER, President.

The following gentlemen constitute the Board of Trustees for the present year:
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Messrs Hugh Smith,
Rev. Oliver Norris, George Taylor,
Rev. Elias Harrison, John Janney, Hon. William Cranch, Auth'y. Cense,

[Communicated for the Alex. Gazette.]

EULOGY.

Obituary praise has generally been appropriated to the eminent and the powerful. The effects produced on society by their actions, have procured honor to their memories; and their virtues, real or feigned, have been held up as a beacon to following generations. If the delineation were ever perfect—if the idyll with which defects are exhibited were ever proportioned to the fondness with which merits are displayed—the partiality of friendship might find a vindication in the useful lessons inculcated by its panegyric. But seldom does the pencil of eulogy portray a resemblance true to its original. Fraillies are introduced only to show that the pageant was human; and the few shades of the picture are so delicate that they serve only to mellow the vivid tints of its light. The distorted representations of conspicuous characters thus presented by funeral commendation, arise from so complicated a variety of causes, that their nature will probably never change, and they will continue to be read and disbelieved. From the influence of many of these motives, so unfavorable to truth, the praise of private virtue is exempt.—While in commemorating the excellencies of one who walked the path of ordinary life, he offers to surviving emulation a pattern more easily to be imitated, and a height of merit more accessible.

If any character deserved the respect of society, and afforded in its exhibition a general and practical advantage, it is that of the late Mr. Nicolas Frederick Blacklock. This gentleman was born in Charles county, Md. in the year 1790, and at an early age was entrusted to the care of the Rev. Mr. Weems, of that county, under whose able guidance his mind obtained instruction, and his character was formed to receive and nourish principles of virtue, piety and honor. When about 17 years old, the previous death of his parents made him the protector of many young brothers and sisters. The integrity with which he discharged this important trust, may be readily imagined by the witnesses of his conduct in subsequent situations. For many years afterwards he pursued in Alexandria the occupation of a merchant, to which he carried the same honorable spirit that had marked his earlier and more retired life.—Distinguished in every transaction by justice, intelligence and liberality, he was fast reaching the requital of his meritorious labors.—From them, and from the delights of far dearer relations, he was, on the 26th ultimo, at Port-Tobacco, removed by a short and sudden illness, to that abode where sorrow terminates, and joy is endless.

The well-founded hope induced by his virtues, that they are now rewarded, cannot restrain the regret that they will no more be exerted in this world: but he lived long enough to subject his character to the test of time and opinion, and to gratify his friends by the safety with which it abided that test. Indeed, his soul was so artless and unreserved, that transient observation developed its qualities and left nothing for continued scrutiny to discover but new niceties of feeling and new modifications of virtue. In the common intercourse of society, he was just, temperate, mild and charitable; firm in duty, generous in sentiment, inflexible in honor, and faithful in friendship. Modest and unobtrusive, he was little solicitous of fame, and left the palm of distinction to be courted by competitors better fitted to the tumult of contention, but not better entitled to its recompense. The judicious estimation of merit may seek topics for Mr. Blacklock's praise, where it is not always found—in domestic privacy. There, in his instance, were to be seen the tender husband, the considerate parent, and the indulgent master.—These offices, which he so ornamented, have now ceased; but while virtue and benevolence are dear, their memory will flourish, and sympathy passing by his grave will borrow the voice of truth, and say,

"Here lie the ashes of a man of worth."

BEAUTY AND WIT.

A woman ought to use her beauty as her wit: she ought not to appear to know that she possesses either one or the other. There are many persons who have genius without knowing that they possess it: some unexpected incident must apprise them of it. They may be compared to those flowers which are kept closed by cold, but which a single ray of the sun may cause to expand in all their beauty. It was somewhat late in life, when love unfolded the genius of the great Cornelia.

A VILLAGE.

Is like that subterraneous cave, called the Ear of Dionysius: nothing passes in or near it but it is instantly known.

ALEXANDRIA.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1818.

I am aware that the sentiments I uttered in my last letter are too refined for the comprehension or feelings of the vulgar, and may be considered even by some whose souls are elevated far above the multitude, as too fine-spun for the business of life.—But that is no reason why we should abstain from displaying the beauty and usefulness of such sentiments, or utterly despair of winning over some few among us to the practice of a morality, in their social intercourse, founded on those, or on principles of the same delicate and philanthropic tendency. Thoroughly to understand them, it is not enough that a man should derive from nature a nice sensibility of soul—he must have acquired a sufficient knowledge of the human heart, to be a master of all the various inlets by which it is vulnerable and susceptible of pain, and of those various operations of the mind by which its sufferings are exasperated. A person so qualified, will decide from the habits of others, the exact proportion of delicacy and punctilious humanity with which each ought to be treated; well knowing that what would be kindness to one man would be cruelty to another, and that a disappointment which would not more deeply affect the peace of one kind of persons, than riding across a rivulet without allowing him to drink would affect a horse, would be a kind of half death, or at least torture inexpressible, to another. There are some men I know, who when any promised good presents itself to their hopes, give a loose to their fancies in anticipated indulgence, figure to themselves the enjoyment they are to have, in a thousand exaggerated forms, which they paint in the most glowing colors it is possible for the invention of a poet to bestow upon them; and who are astonished that their friends do not sympathize with them to the full measure of their excessive mortification, if their life, high flying sanguine hopes, be disappointed of fruition by a failure in the main object of their expectation. The habit of Castle Building, as it is called, arises from the same source with this tendency to hope, and considerably aggravates the miseries of those victims of sensibility. For which reason, tho' I confess that castle building has its pleasures, and those too of a very exquisite kind, yet as I have known it so to exasperate the miseries of disappointment, as almost to lead to madness, I scarcely know the trespass I would be more reluctant to commit on my unoffending fellow creatures, than that of throwing myself between the reasonable, honest expectations of a castle builder and their ultimate accomplishment. To the coarse, the vulgar and the unfeeling, this peculiar turn of mind is unknown; and so far from exciting their sympathy for the mortification of its victims, would rather move them to merriment and rude derision.

A prospect of advantage is presented to the view of one of this cast—so intent is he upon enjoying it that he never observes any one of the multitude of obstructions which lie between him and his certain attainment, some thrown in the way by the ordinary process of nature's operations, some by the ordinary course of human affairs, some by unforeseen and incalculable accidents, and some, and by far the greater number, and of the most inevitable kind, by the cold-blooded villainy of envious, self-interested, sordid, and unfeeling men.—He pours out the whole length of the reins of his glowing fancy—a large share of his sanguine anticipations, perhaps, are built on the exercise of benevolence—he will make such a person as happy as himself—he will provide for one, bestow gifts on a second, put a third in the way of providing for himself—his soul sinks into a dream of philanthropic felicity, and of the whole of this mass of happiness, perhaps not a particle is appropriated exclusively to himself, save only the reflected pleasure of making others comfortable—he not only has the most perfect belief of the reality of the scene, but casts out of view every disagreeable circumstance that could in the least disturb the harmony of the picture, and admits nothing that does not contribute more or less to enhance the luxury of the ideal banquet. From the operation of any one of those causes, a considerable degree of satisfaction would be derived even by dull, cold and phlegmatic persons;—but he has a warm imagination, violent sensibility, and delicate feelings; and therefore his pleasure is so exquisitely delicious, that it draws him away from ordinary enjoyment, and monopolizes every sensation of his soul, to the almost total exclusion of the exertions necessary to the support of life. What then must be the torture of such a person, so susceptible of enjoyment from an illusory expectation, on finding the wings of his hope suddenly clipped, and, together with all his fond imaginations, plunged into a gulf of disappointment—into an abyss of despair.—And what a black heart must that wretch have, who for the accomplishment of a base or selfish wish, or worse, for the gratification of an infernal passion or prejudice, destitute of all ground but malignity of the most indefensible kind, and arrogance, no better, would break down the hopes of such a person, and consign him to anguish and despair!—Yet such things do happen in this life, and pass off not only with impunity but exultation; because public opinion, too intent upon things more near to its own immediate objects, has not yet fixed upon a brand appropriate to such turpitude. I hope the time will come, however, when public sentiment will have appointed a brand for every such offender, and that every time the offender takes off his hat, "Hic niger est," may be seen printed in legible characters on his forehead.

But to return to castle building—when the exercise of the fancy in this way is not suffered to proceed to a mischievous excess, but is moderated by judgment, it may produce happy effects upon the mind. It certainly tends directly to invigorate the intellectual faculties, and, what is better, to refine the affections of the soul. It may be made subservient to the promotion of the practice of virtue, and cannot possibly fail to invigorate the imagination and improve the taste. But as this part of the subject would be injured by too brief treatment, I will postpone it to another occasion.

CURIO.

From the Norfolk Herald, August 28.

THE SPANISH PATRIOTS.

Mr. Lyford, keeper of the Steam Boat Hotel Reading Room, has favored us with the loan of Trinidad papers from the 15th, to the 22d of July, received by the British ship William. A gentleman who came passenger in the William, informs, that there had been several battles fought, and much skirmishing between the contending parties, in all of which the Patriots were victorious, and had finally possessed themselves of the entire command of the plains, and compelled the Royalists to take refuge in the mountains. The 11 British officers who were arrested last winter in Philadelphia, under a process from the authority of the United States, had arrived in Venezuela and joined the Patriot army. Mr. Clay's celebrated speech on the subject of our relations with South America, had been translated into the Spanish language, and was read generally at the heads of the Patriotic regiments amidst the most enthusiastic applause.

LATEST FROM HAVANA.

Capt. Stephenson of the brig Navigator, and the gentlemen who came passengers with him, state "that it is really the case that a duty of four dollars has been laid on all vessels arriving at Havana, to raise a fund for the support of the Inquisition, and that the Navigator was compelled to pay it. And that, independently of this Inquisition duty, another had been recently laid, of 50 cents per ton, on all foreign vessels, indiscriminately, which the Navigator had also to pay. The ship General Jackson, of or from Charleston, was the first vessel who paid this latter tax, and the revenue officers found much difficulty in collecting it. The schrs Margaret and Comet of Baltimore, both arrived at Havana, 12th Aug. Coffee of an inferior quality was 20 cents per lb. and the first quality was held, and some sales had been effected at 28 cents."

From the Norfolk Beacon, August 28.

LATEST FROM ST. THOMAS.

An attentive friend at St. Thomas, has politely forwarded to us the following information, by the schr Lareine, Capt Cooey, arrived here yesterday. He has also furnished us a list of most of the American vessels in that port on the 9th inst. with a notice of their progress in selling, discharging, &c. which will be found under our marine head.

Extract—dated August 9th, 1818.

"There is little change in the markets to windward. This Island is remarkably healthy. West-India produce is very scarce, coffee, sugar, and molasses, not to be had. The prospects here are truly discouraging, as there are 4500 bis. of Flour afloat in this place and no purchasers. We have no late news here from the Maine and no recent accounts from Admiral Brion."

FURTHER FROM ST. THOMAS.

A friend has politely furnished us with the following extract of a letter which he received yesterday from St. Thomas, dated 7th inst.

"This Island is very healthy at present. American vessels are daily arriving here from the windward with their cargoes, for which they could not effect a sale in those ports, and after giving their cargoes away, are returning to the U. S. in ballast—as no West-India produce can be had. The last sales made here were, for Coffee, D23 50 per cwt. sugar, 8 50; molasses, 40 cts; rum, 61 cts per gallon.

"The last sales of American produce effected here, were at the following prices: Flour 11 50 bbl; peas 2 per bush; rice 7 cwt; herrings 5 bbl; codfish 4 50 box; leaf tobacco 12 50 per cwt; rye meal 6 50 per bbl."

FROM ST. BARTHOLOMEWS.

An extract of a letter to a friend in this place says, "I have been to St. Bartholo-news, which is a depot for a set of jobbers, and could get no offers for my cargo, but such as were payable for stolen goods, such as Brazil sugar. There were two privateers cruising off the harbor, within gun shot, when I came out."

New-York, August 29.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival this morning of the ship Ann, Captain Crocker, in the short passage of 30 days from Liverpool, the editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received London dates to the 25th of July and Liverpool to the 27th both inclusive.

Lord Castlereagh has fixed the time for his departure for the Congress of Sovereigns, on the first week in September—and he indulges the hope of returning by the Meeting of Parliament in November.

The woollen Manufacture in England, it is said, is rapidly increasing. In proof of this fact, we are told, that the quantity of wool imported into all parts of England during the last year amounted to one hundred and nine million of pounds—whereas, the quantity imported during the preceding year amounted only to 86 millions, and not more than 75 millions in any former year.

It is stated that, of the members returned for the House of Commons, one hundred and twenty of them were not in the last Parliament. These are exclusive of the Scotch and Irish returns, which are not yet complete.

The French government has agreed to indemnify the British merchants, whose property was confiscated at Bordeaux in 1814, to the amount of 400,000 francs.

A London paper of the 23d of July, mentions, that "late intelligence from Madrid confirm the fact of the convey from the Havana having been engaged with Insurgent privateers actually off the port of Cadiz.—The same accounts allude strongly to the subsisting differences between Spain and America, and speak of a war as almost being inevitable."

As proof of the rapid increase of the trade of Liverpool, it is stated that the Commissioners of the Customs have determined to appoint twenty additional landing waiters, for the more speedy despatch of business.

The aggregate average price of wheat, during the week ending the 18th of July, (being the second week which regulates the importations for the ensuing quarter) is stated at 85s and 6d.

American Funds in London, July 24th.—Three per cents, 68 to 69; new loan 6 per cents, 101 to 102 1-2; 7 per cents, 108; bank shares, L31.—Dividend from first of July.

Corn Exchange, London, July 22.—We continue to receive large supplies from abroad, which, with a great quantity left from Monday's market, caused very heavy sales this morning in the wheat trade, and Monday's prices were with difficulty supported. Barley was also dull sale, but without any alteration in price. Oats were better brisker sale than on Monday. In peas, beans, and other articles, there was no alteration.

London, July 20.

Lord and lady Castlereagh in need setting out early in next month for the Continent. The accounts of the state of the harvest in almost every part of the Continent are of the most gratifying kind. The crops in France, Italy, Germany, Russia, and Poland, hold out the best promise of proving not only exuberant, but of excellent quality. Improvement of the Trade in Bristol.—The account of the Bristol Dock Company for the year ending on the 30th of April, 1817, presented a receipt of 14,853 for tonnage rates and rates on goods; and the account just published ending the 30th of April, 1818, shows a receipt of 18,661 making an increase in the last year on these two rates only, of upwards of 3,700.

Bath Journal.

The produce of the French Customs is stated to have risen during the first five months of this year to 6,000,000 more than it amounted to during the same period of 1817; and an augmentation of at least 12,000,000 for the whole year is confidently anticipated in this branch of the revenue.

Extract of a letter from the Agents to Lloyd's at Riga, dated 11th (23) June, 1818.

"We are authorised to inform you, that at the mouth of the Duna, at the Dam of Fort Connet, a light-house has been erected, which will be lighted from the 15th of June. The first fire is stationed 105 English feet, and the second in the same direction 25 feet, above the level of the sea: in consequence of which the first will be perceived at a distance of 16, and the latter at a distance of 7 Italian miles. The purpose of these new lights is, that their appearance may serve navigators as a guide, regarding the distance at which they may approach for anchoring; 2dly, that the direction of these lights on entering the mouth of the Duna may be conducive to avoid the reef which stretches out to the sea from Mognirholm, as also the sand-banks surrounding that Island.

A dreadful riot took place at the close of the Armagh election. Some straggling soldiers having mingled in the fray with their side arms, a number of persons were severely wounded. Two detachments of troops were at length called in, who charged the rioters and nearly dispersed them, "when," says a letter from Armagh, "the troops advanced with a victorious cry from the mob who accompanied them, and so rapidly, that they charged all where they came, peace makers and peace breakers. A man had struck Mr. Kidd in the face with a stone: he was immediately seized by Mr.

Kidd. Mr. John Prentice, jun. a very fine young man, was assisting in detaining the prisoner, with his back to the soldiers, when he was run through the body with a bayonet, whose point protruded through the front of his waistcoat. He ran with his hands covering his wounds into an adjoining house."

His Majesty the King of Wirttemberg has just issued an Ordinance relative to the inoculation of the Vaccine. Every child born since the 31st of December, 1816, shall be vaccinated before he has completed his third year, unless he has already had the small pox. If the operation does not succeed the first time, it shall be repeated once or even twice, if necessary, after an interval of three months between each operation, unless a physician declares that it is not advisable. Parents who neglect to have their children vaccinated, to pay 30 kreuzers per annum for every child not vaccinated, who is still susceptible of catching the small pox; after the age of 14, the penalty to increase 30 kreuzers annually. No person born since Decr. 31, 1816, shall be admitted into any orphan-house, seminary, school, lyceum, university, &c. &c. unless he prove that he is not susceptible of taking the small-pox, or submit to be vaccinated. No person to perform the operation without special license. Vaccine establishments to be formed to afford facilities to parents and diminish the expense.

It is expected that an establishment for mutual instruction will be carried into effect at Madrid, in spite of the opposition of the major part of the patrons of scholastic institutions in that city, who exert themselves to prevent it. The Government has been solicited to approve of the project, and appears disposed to favour the new method. On receiving an answer, it will be carried into effect. The de l'Infantado and other great personages of Spain are in favour of the establishment.

The Liverpool, 50, Captain F. A. Collier, was expected to sail yesterday morning from Portsmouth for the East-Indies, to relieve the Magicienne, Captain Purvis. Mr. Edye, late of the dock yard at Pembroke, proceeds with Commissioner Upton to Trincomalee, and thence to Cochin, on the Coromandel coast, for the purpose of contracting (under the directions of the Commissioner) with the native builders there, for the building of six small frigates, on the plan of our old sloops of war, with some improvements, to mount 32 guns each. Trincomalee is to be used only as a repairing yard.

Friday evening the Topaze, 46, Capt. Lumley, sailed from Portsmouth for the East India station, to relieve the Orlando captain Clavel. She will land despatches at the Cape of Good Hope and the Mauritius. Messrs Lindeker, shipped 130,000 on board her for Calcutta, on account of merchants.

Four hundred and fifty square miles of ice have recently been detached from the eastern coast of Greenland and the neighboring regions of the Pole. This mass had rendered that coast inaccessible for 400 years, but at present they can penetrate without obstruction as far as latitude 83.—"This breaking up of the Polar ice," says a letter from Copenhagen, "accounts for the continual tempest from the south-east, with heats, storms, and a very electrical state of the atmosphere; which, during 3 years have caused us in Denmark to experience hot winters, and cold humid summers."

LATEST.—The fast-sailing ship Ann, captain Crocker, arrived on Saturday, in 30 days from Liverpool, (the shortest passage this season) and we are indebted to captain C. for papers, &c. to the 28th July. The price of cotton had advanced, and heavy purchases had been made. Highest quotation for uplands was 2s; N Orleans 1s 11d; sea islands 3s 3d to 4s 2d. Price of corn continued to decline, and sales heavy. The harvest promised abundance. Tobacco was on the rise.

Average of wheat for the quarter ending 18th July, 53s 6d; rye 52s 11d.

We perceive an order of the British government to capture and bring in all cruisers who are infesting the ocean pretending to sail under South American commissions, under which they commit outrages upon British property. [This will make work.] According to the best accounts in England from Algiers, from 60 to 70 persons died daily with the plague.

The capture of Pensacola is announced in the London ministerial papers, and a war between the United States and Spain was considered as existing.

Ferdinand of Spain had sent couriers to all the Allied Powers, it was supposed in consequence of the occupation of the Florida by the troops of the United States.—Letters are said to have been received from Madrid, which consider war as inevitable.

The British Consols continue to fluctuate from 78 to 80. The Courier is surprised that the funds should continue so low when the country is so flourishing.

The Queen of England continued very low.

MR. NABEY, having been requested by several gentlemen to exhibit his balloons a second time, respectfully informs the public that he will raise them on Thursday afternoon, the 3d inst. between 5 and 6 o'clock.

The object of this exhibition is to collect something for the support of a numerous and helpless family, who have heretofore lived by my exertions, but who are now left entirely destitute, in consequence of the dispensation of Divine Providence under which I labor. No price is fixed, but it is left to the generosity of those who pass into the enclosure, to leave at the entrance whatever they may please to give.

ROMULUS RIGGS.

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Bank at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and West, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria; as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

March Term, 1818. Robert Perry vs.

James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James B. sham and Catherine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be wanted to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to show cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

BY virtue of a decree of the superior court of chancery for the Richmond district in Virginia, in a suit wherein the executors of General George Washington were plaintiffs, and Gerard Alexander, Thomas L. The above tract of land lies about 16 miles from Winchester, and about 6 miles from Charlestown, and on the main road leading from Winchester to Baltimore, city of Washington and Alexandria. It is well adapted to plaster and clover, and is in quality little inferior, if at all, to that of any farm in that rich valley. The improvements on it are a large two-story frame dwelling house, barn and other necessary out houses.—The water is limestone and of excellent quality.

Any person wishing to view the premises will be shown them upon application to John A. Washington or Bushrod C. Washington, living near the land.

THIS tract is situated in Westernland county, Virginia, adjacent to Mr. Garrett Hunter's Plantation, and contiguous to the waters of the Potomac. A considerable proportion of the land is well timbered, besides a good deal of cedar, pine and other wood, sufficiently convenient to make it an object for those who may be disposed to send it to market—it is nearly equidistant from Baltimore, Washington and Norfolk.

Any one wishing to purchase may apply to

Also, a very valuable LOT, containing 140 acres, being a part of the late Mr. John Turberville's tract—within 6 miles of Georgetown, 3 from the Little Falls Bridge, and near to the turnpike leading from thence to Wileys, in Fairfax county, Va. A great proportion of this land is exceedingly well timbered, and that part which is not, is so recently cleared as to be in an active state for cultivation, and already in a productive condition.—For terms, apply to PHILIP C. Charles County Court.

March Term, 1818.

ON application to Charles County court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him.—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo. THOMAS COOPER, &c.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

For the prevention and cure of DYSPEPSIA AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

Hahn's ANTIBILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
